DEANS’ FORUM 2017
“Women in science and engineering”

INVITATION

August 31st to September 1st
MINES ParisTech
60 boulevard Saint-Michel - PARIS 6

registration required https://deansforum.sciencesconf.org

contact www.mines-paristech.fr carole.grosz@mines-paristech.fr marie.bos@mines-paristech.fr

Two days of speeches, debates and testimonials

PROGRAM

August 31st
“State of the Art”

Women in the industrial field

Vincent Laflèche,
Dean of MINES ParisTech

Valérie Archambault, Deputy Research Director for corporate relations, MINES ParisTech
Nawal Jaljal, Research and Development engineer, SAFRAN

Gender Diversity in industry: state of play, motivation and areas for action - overview in France

Testimony - Sylvaine Neveu, R&I Process Manager, SOLVAY

Women in the academic field

Christine Fontanini, Professor in Education Sciences, PhD, University of Lorraine

Why do girls choose some pathways in higher education and drop some others?

Round table

 Speakers:
Professor Pamela Habibovic, Maastricht University
Katrine Krogh Andersen, Dean of Research, Technical University of Denmark
Professor Nadia Maïzi, Director of Applied Maths Research Center, MINES ParisTech

More diversity: a necessity?

Testimony - Marie-Agathe Charpagne, Postdoctoral researcher, University of California

September 1st
“Experimentations & lessons learnt”

Diploma & genders

Christine Valle, Assistant Dean & Director, Women in Engineering Program, Georgia Tech
The influence of gender in diploma acquisition

Testimony - Valentina Krachmalnicoff

Martine Collart, Professor University of Geneva

Round table

Speakers:
Maria Elmquist, Head of Department technology, management & economics, Chalmers University of Technology

Elisabeth Pate-Cornell, Professor and founding Chair - Department of Management, Science and Engineering, Stanford University

Claire Voisin, Mathematician, Collège de France

Assistant Deputy Principal Research and Innovation Heriot-Watt University

Being a women in engineering

Testimony - Marie-Agathe Charpagne, Postdoctoral researcher, University of California

Actions & prospectives

Nicolas Cheimanoff, Director Emines, Université Mohammed V Polytechnique

Gulsun Saglamer, President of European Women Rectors Association

Presentation of the missions of this association

Aude Bernheim, PhD student at Institut Pasteur, co-founder of WAX-Association

François Taddei, Director of Centre de Recherche Interdisciplinaire (CRI)

Presentation of the CRI and its works